DR. J. BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and is imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

WE CHALLENGE

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby essentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

NEATLY EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE

DAILY GAZETTE.

PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Wisconsin.

Recent events have demonstrated the urgent necessity of increasing the Union Army, in order that the war may be vigorously prosecuted, and the insurrection speedily suppressed. A large area of territory has been won by our brave soldiers; the Missisippi is again free and under the protection of our flag driven back and beaten in the west, the enemy in our constitution and government has gathered his forces at the rebel capitol, in large numbers, and there makes a desperate stand; foreign interference is threatened by the public journals of two mighty European empires. In this emergency, the President of the United States has once more called upon the loyal states for more troops. They must be furnished. Soon can the last death-blow be dealt to this abhorred rebellion, if the loyal people of the north will energetically follow up the work they have so nobly begun. Our government our constitution, the successes of the past, the greatness of our country, even our very homes, are at stake in this struggle; the brave men who have volunteered, fought and suffered, have a right to expect the aid for which the President calls. I am confident that the appeal will not be in vain; but speedy and energetic action on the part of the people—the whole loyal people—is required.

PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN! your spontaneous sacrifices for the maintenance of the Union have been great; but I feel that, to insure a speedy termination of the war, and to protect us against foreign interference, you will voluntarily and unhesitatingly make still greater sacrifices. You will not leave our brave brothers without the assistance they call for!

By recent orders of the War Department, every new volunteer will receive an amount of money sufficient to supply the immediate wants of those whom he may leave behind dependent upon him.

I.

Soldiers are wanted to fill the regiments already in the field.

1st. For every accepted volunteer to join a regiment in the field, a premium of three dollars will be paid.

2d. Every such volunteer will receive upon his enlistment and before he leaves the state, twenty-five dollars, a part of the $100 bounty.

3d. Every such volunteer, upon joining his regiment, will receive further, one month's pay ($13) in advance.

4th. Every such volunteer, having a family dependent upon him for their support, will receive from the state five dollars per month.

Recruiting officers will be detailed from the several regiments now in the field. In the absence of such recruiting officers, volunteers for any of these regiments may report in person at the office of the Adjutant General at Madison, or they may apply in writing to the Adjutant General, stating the regiment they wish to join, and enclosing a certificate of a resident physician that upon examination they are found fit for service, whereupon transportation to Madison and from thence to their regiments will be furnished to them.

II.

Under the call of the President new regiments will be organized to the number of FIVE in our state.

1st. For every accepted volunteer for a new regiment a premium of two dollars will be paid.

2d. Each such volunteer will receive, upon the mustering of his company into the service of the United States, before he leaves the state, the sum of thirteen dollars, (being one month's pay in advance) and the further sum of twenty-five dollars, (being one-fourth of the $100 bounty) in advance, making together the sum of $38.

☞ The foregoing applies to the Twentieth regiment, now in process of organization; and every volunteer joining that or any previously organized regiment, having a family dependent upon him for their support, will receive $5 per month from the state.

The organization of the five new regiments will be speedily commenced.

In the meantime, let every brave and patriotic man in Wisconsin who is willing voluntarily to come to our country's aid, at once offer himself and join any of the regiments now in the field, or the 20th, now being organized. Let every man whom circumstances prevent from going himself to the battle field, aid and assist in recruiting. The government wishes a vigorous prosecution and a speedy termination of the war. To do this it must have a larger army than it has at present, and must have it soon. Arouse then, fellow citizens, make it your business, one and all, to respond to this call vigorously and without delay, to show to the world that Wisconsin's famed loyalty and patriotism is not on the wane!

All enlistments will be for three years or during the war.

☞ Many soldiers belonging to regiments in the field, who have been furloughed on account of sickness or wounds, have recovered so far as to be fit for duty, but still linger in the state. I call upon all such to report themselves at once to the adjutant general's office, under penalty, by recent orders, of being treated as deserters. And I further call upon all loyal citizens, who may know of such soldiers in their localities, to report them at once to the office of the adjutant general.

☞ I here call the attention of the several town assessors in this state to sections 6 and 11 of chapter 31 of the Revised Statutes, and chapter 362 of the laws of 1860, making it the duty of the assessors to make out and return a "militia list" of all free able-bodied male persons between the ages of 18 and 45 in their respective towns, between the first Monday of July and the first Monday of September of the present year, and providing for a penalty of between $50 and $100 for neglect of duty. Assessors will be expected to perform their duties strictly under these provisions of law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my [L. S.] hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed.

Done at Madison, this 8th day of July, A. D. 1862.
By the Governor,
EDWARD SALOMON.
JAMES T. LEWIS, Secretary of State.

R. BARNWELL RHETT.—R. Barnwell Rhett was among the officers killed in the late battle before Richmond. The Baltimore American says of him:

"The death of that eminently—an hundred-fold eminently—mischeivous traitor, R. Barnwell Rhett, will be hailed by the loyal of the nation as a marked case of needed retribution which has been provoked with a persistency almost unknown in the case of any other of the Secession engineers. For thirty years and more his name has figured with more prominence, perhaps, as the instigator of rebellion, than any other man in the south. In fact, so identified has it been with nullification and secession that his very name seemed the embodiment of these heresies, Mr. Calhoun himself having little less to answer for than R. Barnwell Rhett for the bloodshed and woe now upon the land. Brimming over with grand anticipations of what secession was to achieve for the Cotton States, affirming his belief that a confederacy founded on slavwas to dominate the Gulf of Mexico, 'the isle of the sea;' filled with visions of impossible achievments on the part of his co-laborers, he has fallen a victim to his madness and folly, dying with the bitter conviction that he has brought ruin on his state and section and deserved punishment on himself. He has dug his own grave, builded up his own monument of infamy in his efforts to overthrow the world's best hopes, and whilst we may mourn over the folly of those who have been and are his dupes and victims, all must feel that he has met a deserved fate."

HARVESTING COMMENCED.—We are informed that several farmers have commenced cutting their winter wheat. On the barren lands it is a very good crop, but on the prairie it is not so good. The bugs have not injured either kind so much as was at one time feared.—Peoria Union.

DR. J. BOVEE DODS'

IMPERIAL WINE

BITTERS,

ARE made from a pure and unadulterated Wine, which is about double the usual strength of other Wines, and imported by only one house in the United States. Also, from the following valuable Roots, Herbs, &c., viz: Solomon's Seal, Spikenard, Camomile Flowers, Gentian, Wild Cherry Tree Bark, and Bayberry.

to produce

THEIR EQUAL!

We do not profess to have discovered some Roots "known only to the Indians of South America," and a cure for "all diseases which flesh is heir to," but we claim to present to the public a truly valuable preparation, which every intelligent Physician in the country will approve of and recommend. As a remedy for

INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

Weak Lungs, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Diseases of the Nervous System, Paralysis, Piles, Diseases peculiar to Females, Debility, and all cases requiring a Tonic, they are

UNSURPASSED!

For Sore Throat, so common among the Clergy, they are truly valuable.

For the aged and infirm, or for persons of a weak constitution—for Ministers of the Gospel, Lawyers, and all public speakers—for Book-Keepers, Tailors, Seamstresses, Students, Artists, and all persons leading a sedentary life, they will prove truly beneficial.

As a Beverage, they are wholesome, innocent, and delicious to the taste. They produce all the exhilarating effects of Brandy or Wine, without intoxicating; and are a valuable remedy for persons addicted to excessive use of strong drink, and wish to refrain from it. They are pure and entirely free from the poison contained in the adulterated Wines and Liquors with which the country is flooded.

These Bitters not only CURE, but PREVENT Disease, and should be used by all who live in a country where the water is bad, or where Chills and Fevers are prevalent. Being entirely innocent and harmless, they may be given freely to Children and Infants with impunity.

Physicians, Clergymen and temperance advocates, as an act of humanity, should assist in spreading these truly valuable BITTERS over the land, and thereby assentially aid in banishing Drunkenness and Disease.

NEATLY EXECUTED AT THIS OFFICE

DAILY GAZETTE.

PROCLAMATION.

To the People of Wisconsin.

Recent events have demonstrated the urgent necessity of increasing the Union Army, in order that the war may be vigorously prosecuted, and the insurrection speedily suppressed. A large area of territory has been won by our brave soldiers; the Mississippi is again free and under the protection of our flag driven back and beaten in the west, the enemy to our constitution and government has gathered his forces at the rebel capitol, in large numbers, and there makes a desperate stand; foreign interference is threatened by the public journals of two mighty European empires. In this emergency, the President of the United States has once more called upon the loyal states for more troops. They must be furnished. Soon can the last death-blow be dealt to this abhorred rebellion, if the loyal people of the north will energetically follow up the work they have so nobly begun. Our government our constitution, the successes of the past, the greatness of our country, even our very homes, are at stake in this struggle; the brave men who have volunteered, fought and suffered, have a right to expect the aid for which the President calls. I am confident that the appeal will not be in vain; but speedy and energetic action on the part of the people—the whole loyal people—is required.

PEOPLE OF WISCONSIN! your spontaneous sacrifices for the maintenance of the Union have been great; but I feel that, to insure a speedy termination of the war, and to protect us against foreign interference, you will voluntarily and unhesitatingly make still greater sacrifices. You will not leave our brave brothers without the assistance they call for!

By recent orders of the War Department, every new volunteer will receive an amount of money sufficient to supply the immediate wants of those whom he may leave behind dependent upon him.

I.

Soldiers are wanted to fill the regiments already in the field.

1st. For every accepted volunteer to join a regiment in the field, a premium of three dollars will be paid.

2d. Every such volunteer will receive upon his enlistment and before he leaves the state, twenty-five dollars, a part of the $100 bounty.

3d. Every such volunteer, upon joining his regiment, will receive further, one month's pay ($13) in advance.

4th. Every such volunteer, having a family dependent upon him for their support, will receive from the state five dollars per month.

Recruiting officers will be detailed from the several regiments now in the field. In the absence of such recruiting officers, volunteers for any of those regiments may report in person at the office of the Adjutant General at Madison, or they may apply in writing to the Adjutant General, stating the regiment they wish to join, and enclosing a certificate of a resident physician that upon examination they are found fit for service, whereupon transportation to Madison and from thence to their regiments will be furnished to them.

II.

Under the call of the President new regiments will be organized to the number of FIVE in our state.

1st. For every accepted volunteer for a new regiment a premium of two dollars will be paid.

2d. Each such volunteer will receive, upon the mustering of his company into the service of the United States, before he leaves the state, the sum of thirteen dollars, (being one month's pay in advance) and the further sum of twenty-five dollars, (being one-fourth of the $100 bounty) in advance, making together the sum of $38.

☞ The foregoing applies to the Twentieth regiment, now in process of organization; and every volunteer joining that or any previously organized regiment, having a family dependent upon him for their support, will receive $5 per month from the state.

The organization of the five new regiments will be speedily commenced.

In the meantime, let every brave and patriotic man in Wisconsin who is willing voluntarily to come to our country's aid, at once offer himself and join any of the regiments now in the field, or the 20th, now being organized. Let every man whom circumstances prevent from going himself to the battle field, aid and assist in recruiting. The government wishes a vigorous prosecution and a speedy termination of the war. To do this it must have a larger army than it has at present, and must have it soon. Arouse then, fellow citizens, make it your business, one and all, to respond to this call vigorously and without delay, to show to the world that Wisconsin's famed loyalty and patriotism is not on the wane!

All enlistments will be for three years or during the war.

☞ Many soldiers belonging to regiments in the field, who have been furloughed on account of sickness or wounds, have recovered so far as to be fit for duty, but still linger in the state. I call upon all such to report themselves at once to the adjutant general's office, under penalty, by recent orders, of being treated as deserters. And I further call upon all loyal citizens, who may know of such soldiers in their localities, to report them at once to the office of the adjutant general.

☞ I here call the attention of the several town assessors in this state to sections 6 and 11 of chapter 31 of the Revised Statutes, and chapter 362 of the laws of 1860, making it the duty of the assessors to make out and return a "militia list" of all free able-bodied male persons between the ages of 18 and 45 in their respective towns, between the first Monday of July and the first Monday of September of the present year, and providing for a penalty of between $50 and $100 for neglect of duty. Assessors will be expected to perform their duties strictly under these provisions of law.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal to be affixed.
[L. S.]
Done at Madison, this 8th day of July, A. D. 1862.
By the Governor,
EDWARD SALOMON.
JAMES T. LEWIS, Secretary of State.

R. BARNWELL RHETT.—R. Barnwell Rhett was among the officers killed in the late battle before Richmond. The Baltimore American says of him:

"The death of that eminently—an hundred-fold eminently—mischeivous traitor, R. Barnwell Rhett, will be hailed by the loyal of the nation as a marked case of needed retribution which has been provoked with a persistency almost unknown in the case of any other of the Secession engineers. For thirty years and more his name has figured with more prominence, perhaps, as the instigator of rebellion, than any other man in the south. In fact, so identified has it been with nullification and secession that his very name seemed the embodiment of these heresies, Mr. Calhoun himself having little less to answer for than R. Barnwell Rhett for the bloodshed and woe now upon the land. Brimming over with grand anticipations of what secession was to achieve for the Cotton States, affirming his belief that a confederacy founded on slavery was to dominate the Gulf of Mexico, 'the isle of the sea;' filled with visions of impossible achievments on the part of his co-laborers, he has fallen a victim to his madness and folly, dying with the bitter conviction that he has brought ruin on his state and section and deserved punishment on himself. He has dug his own grave, builded up his own monument of infamy in his efforts to overthrow the world's best hopes, and whilst we may mourn over the folly of those who have been and are his dupes and victims, all must feel that he has met a deserved fate."

HARVESTING COMMENCED.—We are informed that several farmers have commenced cutting their winter wheat. On the barren lands it is a very good crop, but on the prairie it is not so good. The bugs have not injured either kind so much as was at one time feared.—Peoria Union.

And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us

The President is Satisfied.

The report that the president made a speech to the army on the Peninsula, yesterday, telling them that he had confidence in Gen. McClellan and was satisfied with what had been done, looks like a continuance of the same military "strategy" which has placed the country in its present position. If the past is satisfactory, then we are are to have seiges instead of battles, reviews instead of actual war, a defensive and not an aggressive policy in the future. To add to the unpleasantness of such a prospect, it is said that we are to have Halleck for secretary of war. "Order number three" and Crittenden caution is to be the programme. The patient is sick with a ranging fever, nearly dying with an acute disease, and slow doctors, who practice on "old chronic cases" are called. God help the patient!

Dont Care Anything about Slavery.

There is a certain class of men in the north who are continually asserting that they care nothing about slavery; "let the institution," say they, "take care of itself. Carry on the war without any reference to it." And so, wrapping themselves in a mantle of indifference, they are the impersonation of patriotism, and the very models of statesmen. But let the war be actually conducted in this manner, or an attempt be made to conduct it in this way; let our army officers ignore entirely the institution of slavery; let them employ any person who may be made useful in any manner in suppressing the rebellion; let them treat as free men and citizens every body who comes to us, what a change of tune is heard from these very "don't care" men! If it is proposed, as a military and public necessity, to employ a black man in any of the work of the camp or any of the duties of the field; if it is proposed to confiscate the "property" of rebellious subjects, and especially if it is proposed to emancipate bondmen who are unwillingly serviceable to the rebellion and transfer them to the other side, then the constitution is violated, private rights are disregarded, and "abolition" is the sole end and aim of the war. Vallandingham's poorly disguised treason, and Richardson's blackguard niggerism are the only sound and healthful emanations of loyal sentiment. Usurpations of constitutional power, the burdens of taxation, the fanaticism of abolitionists, the peculations of army contractors, are the only things which meet their view, and ruin to the army and country is the only prospect ahead.

The fact is about this kind of men they do care for slavery, and for slavery only.—They want the war prosecuted only in such a way as not to interfere with that institution. They want it preserved in all its former power and strength. Any policy which would ignore it will meet their opposition, and any punishment visited upon it they will denounce as a worse crime than the rebellion itself.

By their fruits shall ye know them.

Gen. Shields, who has been in New York some days, left on the 3d for the seat of war, to head his brigade, which is now to be under Gen. McClellan, on James River. The President would not accept his resignation of Brigadier General, and hence his departure for the camp.

High Price of Gold.—Gold sold in New York day before yesterday at 17 cents premium, and in Chicago at 12 to 14 cents. Yesterday the price fell off 2 cents. An export demand is the cause.

To day, the price in New York is reported at 11⅞.

Military Items.—Lieut. Col. John Hancock commissioned Col. of 14th regiment vice Wood deceased.

Rev. Samuel W. Eaton is commissioned Chaplain of the 7th regiment.

Lt. A. M. Pratt is Captain of Co. "E," 3d Cavalry, vice Justin died.

Major L. M. Ward is Lieut. Colonel of 14th regiment, vice Hancock promoted.

Form of Oath for Contrabands.—The following is the form of the oath usually administered to contrabands that come within our lines at Fredericksburg:

"You, Cicero, do solemnly swear you will bear true allegiance to the United States, that you will take good care of the horses and mules, and if any of them get away you will go after them, no matter how dark it is, and will alsa black boots to the best of your knowledge and belief. So help you General McDowell."

The gravity of both parties while is is being administered, is said to be edifying.

Pet Birds.—Caged birds are the source of much pleasure, and while they give great happiness if they are kept in a good healthy condition, seem to enjoy life nearly, if not quite as well as their mates in the bush or wildwood. One of the great drawbacks to the happiness of birds, and to the pleasure of keeping them, is lice, and having noticed in an exchange paper what is said to be a safe and sure way of removing them, we give it to our readers:

Lay a piece of cotton or cotton flannel over the cage at night, several nights in succession, taking it off at daybreak. Multitudes of lice will be found upon it, which are easily killed. After a few days all will be removed.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

The Rebel Fortifications at Columbus.

Columbus, July 7th, 1862.

Editors Gazette:—The fortifications erected by the rebels at this point are very strong and display good engineering skill. Along the river shore for a long distance are water batteries protected by sand-bag breastworks, they are constructed one above the other in a terrace form and in an oblique manner, well calculated for cross firing, and capable of raking the river approach in all directions. Upon the bluffs adjacent to the river are earthwork forts of formidable character, the sides of which are so run as to form runtrant and salient angles, and one base completely protects and and rakes the other; the parapets and ramparts are strengthened by heavy bastions of earth, and guns of one hundred and twenty eight pounds calibre are mounted at the angles, while along the sides are planted small field pieces to be used against assaulting parties. Immense cable chains were stretched across the river; sub-marine torpedoes of great size, conical shaped and pointed, were sunk in the river, and infernal machines of large construction were planted in the ground throughout the whole line of defences; and in all of the approaches they were connected by protected wires laid in the ground to a magnetic battery in the center of the fortifications, and capable of being fired at any moment. The fortifications extend back from the river for miles, and consist of parallels of earthwork, connected by flanking banks, forming salient and runtrant angles; upon the outer works were mortars and rifled thirty-twos. There are seven magazines excavated in the sides of the bluffs and so protected as to render their explosion by shell impossible. Great quantities of shot, shell, grape and cannister are scattered around the defences and upon the levee. The troops were supplied with water from the river by means of a force pump worked by a steam engine, and the whole works are carefully concealed and protected in chambers excavated for the purpose. The defences as a whole are magnificent in plan and execution, and it would have cost many lives to have taken the position by direct assault; but the fall of Donelson compelled the evacuation of Columbus.

There must have been at least 40,000 troops here at one time. They lived in log and board shanties, and appear to have enjoyed themselves nicely, by the number of bottles, fruit cans, oyster and sardine boxes lying around. The grounds upon which the fortifications are built received that formation from nature which in itself constitutes a natural defence, being a succession of high ridges divided by sharp ravines, which together form natural parallels of defence, the one commanding and protecting the other in successive advances; and in some places three or more ridges are so located as to bear upon each other respectively, making a powerful combination for resistance. I have never seen a position capable of being fortified to that degree of perfection which is manifest here, and it must have been with sorrow akin to that of "Rachel weeping for her children" that the rebels "took up their beds" and skedaddled; (the latter part of the sentance is not a quotation from scripture, I make the remark that you may not be misled by the connection.)

Much sickness must have prevailed in the rebel camp, for the graves are numerous and some of the inscriptions are touching in the extreme—the old and the young, the good and the bad, the father, the husband and the son, here lie side by side in the sleep of death. It is sad to contemplate the horrors of war; a fearful retribution awaits the instigators of this great crime. May justice be dealt out with an open hand that all men may know that death is the doom of rebels. The curse of Cain is upon this people and it will require the whole purifying process of war before the work of regeneration is finished. Union sentiment outside of the army, exists in the imagination only—there is none.

The 13th is doing post duty here and the probability is that we shall remain for some time. Yours truly,

ED. RUGER.

Reasons for Want of Success in Enlistment.

Editor Milwaukee Sentinel:—In your Saturday evening paper of the 14th inst., the Madison Journal, under the head "Recruiting for the Twentieth," says:

"We regret to learn that the officers are not meeting with all the success in enlisting men that might be desired."

To my own mind the above can be satisfactorily explained as follows:

1. Twenty-five thousand men have already enlisted for the war, which is quite an army of itself, to be taken out of an agricultural state, with a population of only about three-quarters of a million.

2. I do not think there has been sufficient care and discretion exercised by the appointing power in the selection of the several recruiting officers. I will mention one instance, which may tend to prove my assertion. A young man dressed up in a military uniform, was one day passing by a certain place where quite a number of citizens were conversing. After he had passed, one of the number inquired who he was. Answer.—That is young———, one of the recruiting officers of the Twentieth.—"Indeed—ha-ha—wonder if it is a fair sample. If he is, it will take some time, I guess, to obtain the desired number." I mention this, not to cast a slur upon any of the recruiting officers, but to show the importance of selecting the very best men that can be found, irrespective of any party or favorites. Even a little military experience is not a sufficient guarantee to induce men to enlist under them, at the present stage of the war. They must be men of sound judgment and common sense, and possessing qualifications that will enable them to treat those inferior in position as men worthy of the best care and kindest attention.

3. The policy of the national administration upon the "vexed question of slavery," is not calculated to increase the enthusiasm of a free people, but on the contrary, rather to diminish it.

According to the present indications, slavery is to be preserved in the rebellious states. And, inasmuch that every true supporter of the government feels and believes the present conflict to be the legitimate fruit of that monster, consequently so long as our government refuses to strike a deadly blow at slavery, the root of the evil, just so long will the conflict continue.

Is it not evident to all candid men that the policy of the border state men and the Breckinridge democrats of the north is to preserve the Baal of the south at all hazards? And have they not succeeded beyond their expectations, in controlling the administration? Almost every act of it touching slavery proves that their policy has been adhered to thus far. When Gen. Fremont issued his humane and eminently just proclamation, declaring the slaves of rebels free—to which the great body of the American people responded "Amen!"—a fiendish howl ascended from the pit of slavery, the sound of which penetrated into the White House, and forthwith caused the president to modify said proclamation; and this vindictive howl was kept up until that noble champion of freedom was sacrificed to satisfy the champions of slavery.

Again, another champion of free institutions, Gen. Hunter, issues a proclamation declaring freedom (as a military necessity) to all the slaves within his district. But before this was officially known, the worshippers of "mother of harlots, and abominations of all the earth" sent up another and a louder howl, which compelled the president to succumb once more, by causing him to declare Gen. Hunter's proclamation "whether genuine or false, is altogether void."

Finally, the president appoints Hon. E. Stanley military governor of North Carolina, and although the infamous acts of the governor in expelling Mr. Helper from the state because he loved freedom better than slavery; also in granting license to secessionists to force into slavery those downtrodden persons who have rendered invaluable service to the Union cause; are all fresh in the mind of the reader, yet I refer to them for the purpose of showing the correctness of my assertion. But you will say: The President condemns these acts of the governor. I admit it is so stated by Washington correspondents. However, no proclamation has yet been issued (so far as the public knows) declaring the said acts "whether genuine or false, altogether void." It is also a fact not to be overlooked, that the president has not shown the boldness and alacrity in this case that he did in the cases of Gens. Fremont and Hunter. This border state policy, if adhered to much longer, will greatly discourage the friends of free institutions, because they believe the time is forever past when the slave power can be loyal to that glorious free government which its founders, in honesty of purpose, meant to establish; and while it is permitted to exist among us, it will never cease to move heaven, earth and hell for the destruction of free thought, and to plot against the freedom, peace and independence of our country. Also, this policy will naturally tend to the continuation of hostilities, and thereby impoverish the country by exhausting its resources of men and means, and ultimately result in European intervention, which is the last hope of the rebels, and which their emissaries abroad have been laboring incessantly to bring about. When this is accomplished, which is not at all improbable, the so-called Union men of the border states, (cherishing slavery as their leading interest,) with their satellites in the north, will then say to the government, "Restore to us the 'Union as it was'; enact a more stringent fugitive slave law; open the territories for our slave property, and guarantee its protection, etc., etc., and we will consent to remain in the Union. Otherwise we will unite our fortunes and destinies with the seceded states."

In view of the foregoing, is not the destruction of slavery a military necessity? It is a necessity in such a sense that no victories will ever attain the object for which we are fighting, while we still cherish this viper in the bosoms of the nation.

But it is not too late yet for the administration to change its policy, and, thereby save the country and establish the Union on principles of freedom and justice to all men. Let it aim its blows directly at slavery, the main spring and life of this rebellion, and thus disclose to the world the real (though hitherto disguised) issue of the conflict. By adopting such a policy (as a military necessity) we shall soon enlist the sympathy of the whole civilized world on our side, and no European power would dare interfere in such a conflict, except on the side of freedom, and it would not take long to convince the southern chivalry of the hopelessness of their cause, whenever they became satisfied that their pet institution is no longer to be respected, and that the three and half millions of loyalists now in bondage are to be sustained in their struggle for freedom, by all the power of the army and navy of the United States, and by the united and moral sympathy of all christendom.

In conclusion, let us hope, the President will not remain "blind to the signs of the times," that he will speedily exercise his right and moral duty as Commander-in-Chief by declaring freedom to the slaves of all rebels, and thus open a way for the final extinction of "the sum of all villainies." "So much good has not been done by one effort in all past time, as in the Providence of God it is now his high privilege to do. May the vast future not have to lament that he has neglected it."

Regnant Populi.

☞ The Chilton Times says that Stephen C. Bigelow, a notorious horse thief, who was sent from this county and escaped from the state prison on the 6th ult., was captured at the school house, near Mott's, in the town of Eaton, Manitowoc county, last week, by Sheriff Watrous, of Calumet county, assisted by some of the citizens of Eaton, He was securely bound and taken to Waupun, where the Sheriff received a reward of $150 for capturing him.

Parrott Guns.—The cost of the smallest Parrott gun (6-pounder) is $200; for 200 pounders, $2,000 each—which is said to be one-tenth the cost of the Armstrong gun. The charge of powder is one pound to every ten of the ball, and the cost of powder and shell for every discharge is nearly $10. The weight of the 200-pound Parrott is little more than one-half of the columbiad which carries the 150 pound solid shot, or the 10-inch shell. The practice with these guns is excellent. Experiments are made daily, and with an accuracy most astonishing. The shriek of the ball, as it flies through the air at a velocity of over six hundred miles per hour, is like that of a railroad train at full speed.

Couldn't Support it.—A chap in Virginia was taken prisoner by the rebels, who demanded that he should take the oath to support the confederate government. The fellow said he had taken a great many big oaths in his day, but he could not even support his own family, and to swear to support the confederate government was taller swearing than he dare do.

We regret to learn by a gentleman direct from Washington, that on Thursday last, Hon. Elisha Whittlesey, comptroller of the United States treasury, was struck with paralysis, causing complete blindness of one eye, and rendering his condition very precarious.—Cleveland Herald.

Pacific Railroad.—In accordance with a joint resolution of congress, the corporators of the Pacific railroad are to meet in Chicago on the first Tuesday in September.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union PassengerDepot.

Last Night's Report.

Washington, July 10.

No intelligence has been received from the Army of the Potomac for several days past, further than it is improving in strength and efficiency.

New York, July 10.

A rebel dispatch says that the British steamer Modern Greece going into Wilmington, North Carolina, on the 27th, was run aground near Fort Fisher by the blockading fleet, who hauled off on the opening of the fort on them. She has 10,000 pounds of powder on board. The fort succeeded in striking so as to wet the powder and prevent her explosion by the federal shells. It is believed that a large portion of the cargo will be saved.

A dispatch from Gen. Lee to Jeff. Davis announces a signal victory, June 28th, and grieves to state our rebel loss in officers and men is great.

A Richmond telegram of the 28th expressed the opinion that McClellan would capitulate, as his army was thoroughly discomfited. Gen. Elsyr was severely wounded, it is feared mortally. Major Wheat was killed. The British steamer Racer was in Charleston harbor on the 28th.

A Washington special to the Post says: The forthcoming address of the republican members of congress to the people will favor the most energetic action in the prosecution of the war, and the use of all the means in our power against the rebellion and foreign intervention. The policy of employing blacks in military operations is rapidly gaining favor here.

New York, July 10.

The steamer Potomac, from Port Royal, July 6th, has arrived. The health of the troops is favorable. The rebel pickets are annoying at Wilmington Island. Two of our pickets were wounded on the 5th. All quiet at Beaufort.

St. Johns, July 10.

The City of New York, from Liverpool, the 2d, Queenstown the 3d, was boarded off Cape Race, Thursday morning. The City of Washington arrived out Queenstown 2d. Flour and Wheat quiet and firm, but unchanged. Political news unimportant.

Quincy, Ill., July 10.

Special to Chicago Journal.—A band of six bushwhackers visited the residence of a Union man named Pratt, sixteen miles from Canton, in Lewis county, Missouri, on Tuesday last, but not finding him at home, plundered his house. Soon after they left the house, they met him and shot him dead. Fourteen buckshot were found in his body. Yesterday a band of about 80 robbed the store of a Mr. Thurston, Monticello, near Canton, of everything of value that it contained. The citizens of Canton are preparing to defend themselves, in anticipation of an attack from these rebel guerillas.

An order was issued yesterday by Col. McNeil, commanding that division, prohibiting the sale and circulation of the Quincy Herald in northeast Missouri. The Chicago Times will probably be attended to next.

Memphis, July 8, 10 a. m., via Cairo, July 9.

The work upon the Memphis and Ohio, and Memphis and Charleston railroads, is nearly completed on the bridge over the Big Hatchie. On the Memphis and Ohio railroad some work is yet to be done, otherwise the road could be in running order in a day or two. The running stock will be here directly.

Arkansas is in a dreadful state of ferment. Gentlemen from Napoleon who fled from conscription, says there is some Union feeling there, sufficient to induce citizens to guard its marine hospital nightly, to prevent the rebels from burning it. There is not a store open in town and not more than half the houses occupied. Six Union men have been hanged at Little Rock during the past two weeks and one put in jail at Helena for speaking to a federal officer on a transport.

A woman has been ironed and sent to Little Rock, charged with being a spy.

Memphis, July 8.

There is no important news from Vicksburg. The bombardment continues, and the fleet is waiting land reinforcements.

The rebels hung an old woman near here a few days since for expressing Union sentiments and denouncing the conscription.

The town will be demolished by our mortar shells.

Gen. Van Dorn is seven or eight miles in the rear with his forces.

Washington, July 10.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The senate spent some four or five hours in debating the bill for employing negroes in the military service. Mr. Browning opposed the feature of the bill giving freedom to slaves employed and compensating loyal owners for them, declaring it to be unconstitutional. He made a terrible long prosy speech.

No vote was taken, and the bill will come up again to-morrow.

When Chandler called up his resolution calling for all the orders the President had given McClellan about advancing, for the the numbers of his army since last November, and for the numbers of successive reinforcements he has received, Mr. Wright of Indiana opposed it as a measure of hostility to Gen. McClellan, and went on to declare his confidence alike in that officer, President Lincoln and Secretary Stanton.

Mr. Chandler promptly replied that the object of his resolution had been misunderstood. For weeks there had been a violent onslaught on Secretary Stanton, on the pretext that he had prevented reinforcements from McClellan. His object was to defend Stanton, whom he proposed to show entirely innocent. His resolution was then adopted by a vote of thirty-five to six, the latter as follows; Anthony, Foster, Lane of Kansas, McDougall, Saulsbury and Wright.

In the senate debate to-day, Mr. Henderson of Missouri declared himself warmly in favor of using negroes in any military service in which they are available. He insisted on more vigor, declared we did not appreciate the desperate energy of the rebels, had underrated them every where, and were underrating their numbers and resources now.

Congress it is thought pretty certain to adjourn the first of next week, unless the present occupations of the President should prevent him from having leisure to examine and sign important bills. The tax bill is likely to be amended so that appointments for collectors will not need to be sent to the senate the present session.

The correspondence in relation to the White House imbroglio is printed. In one of his letters, General McClellan comments with considerable bitterness on the course of the simpletons who had been preferring complaints because he guarded the house and did not use it for a hospital.

Mr. Stanton's letters to McClellan are regarded as remarkably courteous and considerate.

Senator Chandler received, yesterday and to day, a perfect flood of letters from prominent persons in New York and Pennsylvania, thanking him for having had the courage to make his recent speech in defense of Mr. Stanton, and relating to the recent conduct of the war on the Peninsula.

Secessionists at Fredericksburg were remarkably jubilant, first of last week, over the news from Richmond. After the news of Monday's and Tuesday's battles began to come in, they exhibited a marked change in their demeanor. Some of them did not deny that they heard bad news, as they are known to have direct communication with rebel sources of news from Richmond, their conduct is inferred to indicate confirmation of belief entertained by our officers of terrible rebel losses in the last two days, and of the bad condition of the rebel army.

Washington, July 10.

The danger of interruptions to the free passage of our transports on the James river seems increasing. Three steamboats, the Canonicus, Achilles and Nellie Barker, were fired on by a rebel battery last Monday evening, only four or five miles below Harrison's Landing. The mail boats now go up and down under convoy of gunboats. The Canonicus and Achilles were both hit. The gunboats, it is thought, can keep navigation open by preventing the rebels from planting permanent batteries along the shore, but they cannot keep away flying batteries of long range field pieces, which have been doing all the mischief. Firing on boats so close to McClellan's position indicates that the rebels are assuming bold ground on all sides of him.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

New York, July 10.

The Express says that dry goods importers decline to make sales except in small lots, and credits are to end until prices of exchange will allow them to know what goods are worth. Exchange is quoted at 128½.

New York, July 11.

The Tribune says the President returned to Washington last evening. Nothing official has transpired as to his action while with General McClellan. Our letter from Fort Monroe says he went to see for himself and learn what changes, if any, were needed; that all was going on satisfactorily. The troops were well rested and ready to a man for another fight. The new position is impregnable, and the roads to Richmond, 19 miles by land, dry and favorable. The Burnside reinforcements have all gone up the river. They are in fine health and spirits, splendidly disciplined and efficient. Burnside is an intimate friend of McClellan and will be next in command.

Another correspondent learns that on the arrival of the President at Harrison's Landing, Gen. McClellan with several officers visited him on board, after which the President and the General had a private conference for about half an hour. They then proceeded in an ambulance to Gen. Sumner's headquarters, when they took horses and visited the entrenchments. The President briefly addressed the soldiers. He said he had come to see for himself and to know the situation of affairs, and that he should go back satisfied. It was said they had been whipped. It was not so, and never would be. He knew the men he saw around him would prove equal to the task before them, and never give up without going into Richmond. He had been unable to sleep for anxiety, but after what he had seen and heard, should go back to Washington, satisfied that it was all right with the army of the Potomac. He declared his confidence in the army and its commander, in all the men and all the officers, who were all alike deserving the confidence of the country.

The party continued their ride along the lines, and at 9 in the evening returned to headquarters, after having been in the saddle 7 hours. On Wednesday morning, after a conference at headquarters, the President started on his return.

Washington, July 10.

Special to Tribune.—The following are names of the committee of ten appointed by S. N. Sherman of St. Lawrence district, chairman of the republican caucus, last night, to draft an address to the country. Senators Howard, of Michigan; Wilson, of Massachusetts; Wilkinson, of Minnesota; Lane, of Kansas; Morril, of Maine; and representatives, Bingham, of Ohio; Stevens, of Pennsylvania; Sedgwich, of New York; Potter, of Wisconsin; and Sargent, of California.

World's special says: Lieut. McLane, of 32d Ohio regiment, who wears a United States uniform with the Virginia coat of arms on the buttons, was arrested to day and sent to the Old Capitol, for entertaining a number of rebel prisoners under his charge, by taking them to private residences and escorting them around to hotels.

Special to Times.—It was rumored today that Gen. Halleck was with the President at Fort Monroe. It does not seem to be reliable, but the report gains belief that Halleck is to be the new secretary, for which position many regard him as the fittest man in the nation!!

The friends of Union prisoners throughout the United States will be delighted to hear that the war department has, to day, determined on a general exchange of prisoners. This movement is traceable directly to the Times' editorial of yesterday. [Is it possible!]

New York, July 11.

Advices from Hilton Head to the 6th, state that several of our gunboats had been engaged for several days in making reconnoisances of the Santee and Wachenlew rivers, and the result had proved important. Several small vessels, including a steam tug, had been captured, besides numerous flat-boats laden with rice. The negroes on the appearance of the gunboats come in troops to claim protection, and they were taken off, some 600 in number.

A company of rebel guerillas, on the morning of the 4th, made a foray upon Hinckney Island and killed two of our pickets, and captured two others. The rebels had also made a demonstration at Port Royal Ferry, which did not result in any damage. They were soon driven off.

Herald's special.—The President is satisfied that affairs on the peninsula are in a much better condition than has been reported. He gives credit to Gen. McClellan for having in no way exaggerated facts. He has seen for himself the necessity for reinforcements, and returns with the conviction that McClellan is in his proper position; that the army is devoted to him and full of confidence in his ability, and that all he requires shall be done without delay.

Lord Palmerston, in the British parliament, reiterated his declaration against the feasibility of mediation at present.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

New York, July 11.

By the schooner Hazel we have New Orleans papers to June 26th. The price of flour had advanced to $24 per bbl. Gen. Sheply, in consequence, issued an order fixing the price of bread at twenty cents for twenty-four ounces, and smaller amounts in proportion.

Gen. Butler had ordered all banks in the department to make a return to headquarters of all sums due to the banks in the rebellious states; also of all sums due to the state of Louisiana or state officers; also that checks or drafts thereon shall not be paid without a permit from headquarters.

The Delta says there was quite a stir in cotton on the 25th of June, and samples which have been stored away for a year or more, sold at 25c per pound. A number of vessels which had for some time been reported below, have arrived at New Orleans. Butler has appointed Moses Bates of Massachusetts, warden of the state penitentiary at Baton Rouge.

Gen. Butler had issued orders prohibiting masters of vessels from taking away any persons of color, others than those coming to New Orleans on board their vessels, under penalty of imprisonment and liability to confiscation of their vessels.—Desperate gangs of outlaws are reported as nightly committing depredations on the Opelousas Railroad.

A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held at New Orleans on the night of the 21st of June.

Boston, July 11.

The city council of Newberryport, after patriotic speeches, voted a bounty of 75 dollars to each man volunteering under the new call for soldiers in that city.

St. Johns, N. F., July 11.

The steamer Norweigan from Liverpool 3d, via, Londonderry 4th, was boarded off Cape Race, at 11 o'clock, to-day. The shipping at Liverpool on the 4th of July was gaily decorated with flags. The Cunard and other trans-atlantic steamers had all the bunting flying. Breadstuffs downward. Wheat 3d lower. Provisions very dull.

Nashville, July 10.

Special to Herald.—Four companies of the 9th Pennsylvania cavalry were surprised and cut to pieces, at daybreak this morning, at Tompkinsville, on the state line, by Stearns cavalry, 1,500 strong. Majors E. Jordans and Brown are reported killed. The wounded men were assassinated.—Stearns is reported en route for Bowling Green, with the intention of destroying the bridge. Some of the railroad track has been torn up.

New York, July 11th.

Receipts of flour 21,437 bbls market heavy unsettled and 5c lower. Sales 9,000 bbls, 4,50a4,70. Superfine Western 4,90a5,10 common to medium extra Western.

Wheat receipts 171,877 bushels, market dull, unsettled and declining. Sales 60,000 bushels, 98a1,08 Chicago spring; 1,08 a1,12 Milwaukee club. Stocks dull and lower. American gold 11⅞.

Milwaukee, July 11.

Wheat lower and unsettled. No quotations.

Fully Accounted For.—A few days since we noticed the fact that the Leavenworth Inquirer had re-appeared since its suppression, and accompanied the statement with the remark that its propensities for lieing did not seem to be at all changed. We have now a full explanation in the fact that A. F. Pratt was placed in charge of the paper after the discharge of the "painful duty" of suppressing it under its former editors.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us

And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us

The President is Satisfied.

The report that the president made a speech to the army on the Peninsula, yesterday, telling them that he had confidence in Gen. McClellan and was satisfied with what had been done, looks like a continuance of the same military "strategy" which has placed the country in its present position. If the past is satisfactory, then we are are to have seiges instead of battles, reviews instead of actual war, a defensive and not an aggressive policy in the future. To add to the unpleasantness of such a prospect, it is said that we are to have Halleck for secretary of war. "Order number three" and Crittenden caution is to be the programme. The patient is sick with a ranging fever, nearly dying with an acute disease, and slow doctors, who practice on "old chronic cases" are called. God help the patient!

Dont Care Anything about Slavery.

There is a certain class of men in the north who are continually asserting that they care nothing about slavery; "let the institution," say they, "take care of itself. Carry on the war without any reference to it." And so, wrapping themselves in a mantle of indifference, they are the impersonation of patriotism, and the very models of statesmen. But let the war be actually conducted in this manner, or an attempt be made to conduct it in this way; let our army officers ignore entirely the institution of slavery; let them employ any person who may be made useful in any manner in suppressing the rebellion; let them treat as free men and citizens every body who comes to us, what a change of tune is heard from these very "don't care" men! If it is proposed, as a military and public necessity, to employ a black man in any of the work of the camp or any of the duties of the field; if it is proposed to confiscate the "property" of rebellious subjects, and especially if it is proposed to emancipate bondmen who are unwillingly serviceable to the rebellion and transfer them to the other side, then the constitution is violated, private rights are disregarded, and "abolition" is the sole end and aim of the war. Vallandingham's poorly disguised treason, and Richardson's blackguard niggerism are the only sound and healthful emanations of loyal sentiment. Usurpations of constitutional power, the burdens of taxation, the fanaticism of abolitionists, the peculations of army contractors, are the only things which meet their view, and ruin to the army and country is the only prospect ahead.

The fact is about this kind of men they do care for slavery, and for slavery only.—They want the war prosecuted only in such a way as not to interfere with that institution. They want it preserved in all its former power and strength. Any policy which would ignore it will meet their opposition, and any punishment visited upon it they will denounce as a worse crime than the rebellion itself.

By their fruits shall ye know them.

Gen. Shields, who has been in New York some days, left on the 3d for the seat of war, to head his brigade, which is now to be under Gen. McClellan, on James River. The President would not accept his resignation of Brigadier General, and hence his departure for the camp.

HIGH PRICE OF GOLD.—Gold sold in New York day before yesterday at 17 cents premium, and in Chicago at 12 to 14 cents. Yesterday the price fell off 2 cents. An export demand is the cause.

To day, the price in New York is reported at 11⅞.

MILITARY ITEMS.—Lieut. Col. John Hancock commissioned Col. of 14th regiment vice Wood deceased.

Rev. Samuel W. Eaton is commissioned Chaplain of the 7th regiment.

Lt. A. M. Pratt is Captain of Co. "E," 3d Cavalry, vice Justin died.

Major L. M. Ward is Lieut. Colonel of 14th regiment, vice Hancock promoted.

FORM OF OATH FOR CONTRABANDS.—The following is the form of the oath usually administered to contrabands that come within our lines at Fredericksburg:

"You, Cicero, do solemnly swear you will bear true allegiance to the United States, that you will take good care of the horses and mules, and if any of them get away you will go after them, no matter how dark it is, and will alsa black boots to the best of your knowledge and belief. So help you General McDowell."

The gravity of both parties while is is being administered, is said to be edifying.

PET BIRDS.—Caged birds are the source of much pleasure, and while they give great happiness if they are kept in a good healthy condition, seem to enjoy life nearly, if not quite as well as their mates in the bush or wildwood. One of the great drawbacks to the happiness of birds, and to the pleasure of keeping them, is lice, and having noticed in an exchange paper what is said to be a safe and sure way of removing them, we give it to our readers:

Lay a piece of cotton or cotton flannel over the cage at night, several nights in succession, taking it off at daybreak. Multitudes of lice will be found upon it, which are easily killed. After a few days all will be removed.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

The Rebel Fortifications at Columbus.

COLUMBUS, July 7th, 1862.

EDITORS GAZETTE:—The fortifications erected by the rebels at this point are very strong and display good engineering skill. Along the river shore for a long distance are water batteries protected by sand-bag breastworks, they are constructed one above the other in a terrace form and in an oblique manner, well calculated for cross firing, and capable of raking the river approach in all directions. Upon the bluffs adjacent to the river are earthwork forts of formidable character, the sides of which are so run as to form runtrant and salient angles, and one base completely protects and and rakes the other; the parapets and ramparts are strengthened by heavy bastions of earth, and guns of one hundred and twenty-eight pounds calibre are mounted at the angles, while along the sides are planted small field pieces to be used against assaulting parties. Immense cable chains were stretched across the river; sub-marine torpedoes of great size, conical shaped and pointed, were sunk in the river, and infernal machines of large construction were planted in the ground throughout the whole line of defences; and in all of the approaches they were connected by protected wires laid in the ground to a magnetic battery in the center of the fortifications, and capable of being fired at any moment. The fortifications extend back from the river for miles, and consist of parallels of earthwork, connected by flanking banks, forming salient and runtrant angles; upon the outer works were mortars and rifled thirty-twos. There are seven magazines excavated in the sides of the bluffs and so protected as to render their explosion by shell impossible. Great quantities of shot, shell, grape and cannister are scattered around the defences and upon the levee. The troops were supplied with water from the river by means of a force pump worked by a steam engine, and the whole works are carefully concealed and protected in chambers excavated for the purpose. The defences as a whole are magnificent in plan and execution, and it would have cost many lives to have taken the position by direct assault; but the fall of Donelson compelled the evacuation of Columbus.

There must have been at least 40,000 troops here at one time. They lived in log and board shanties, and appear to have enjoyed themselves nicely, by the number of bottles, fruit cans, oyster and sardine boxes lying around. The grounds upon which the fortifications are built received that formation from nature which in itself constitutes a natural defence, being a succession of high ridges divided by sharp ravines, which together form natural parallels of defence, the one commanding and protecting the other in successive advances; and in some places three or more ridges are so located as to bear upon each other respectively, making a powerful combination for resistance. I have never seen a position capable of being fortified to that degree of perfection which is manifest here, and it must have been with sorrow akin to that of "Rachel weeping for her children" that the rebels "took up their beds" and skedaddled; (the latter part of the sentance is not a quotation from scripture, I make the remark that you may not be misled by the connection.)

Much sickness must have prevailed in the rebel camp, for the graves are numerous and some of the inscriptions are touching in the extreme—the old and the young, the good and the bad, the father, the husband and the son, here lie side by side in the sleep of death. It is sad to contemplate the horrors of war; a fearful retribution awaits the instigators of this great crime. May justice be dealt out with an open hand that all men may know that death is the doom of rebels. The curse of Cain is upon this people and it will require the whole purifying process of war before the work of regeneration is finished. Union sentiment outside of the army, exists in the imagination only—there is none.

The 13th is doing post duty here and the probability is that we shall remain for some time. Yours truly,

ED. RUGER.

Reasons for Want of Success in Enlistment.

EDITOR MILWAUKEE SENTINEL:—In your Saturday evening paper of the 14th inst., the Madison Journal, under the head "Recruiting for the Twentieth," says:

"We regret to learn that the officers are not meeting with all the success in enlisting men that might be desired."

To my own mind the above can be satisfactorily explained as follows:

1. Twenty-five thousand men have already enlisted for the war, which is quite an army of itself, to be taken out of an agricultural state, with a population of only about three-quarters of a million.

2. I do not think there has been sufficient care and discretion exercised by the appointing power in the selection of the several recruiting officers. I will mention one instance, which may tend to prove my assertion. A young man dressed up in a military uniform, was one day passing by a certain place where quite a number of citizens were conversing. After he had passed, one of the number inquired who he was. Answer.—That is young———, one of the recruiting officers of the Twentieth,—"Indeed—ha-ha—wonder if it is a fair sample. If he is, it will take some time, I guess, to obtain the desired number." I mention this, not to cast a slur upon any of the recruiting officers, but to show the importance of selecting the very best men that can be found, irrespective of any party or favorites. Even a little military experience is not a sufficient guarantee to induce men to enlist under them, at the present stage of the war. They must be men of sound judgment and common sense, and possessing qualifications that will enable them to treat those inferior in position as men worthy of the best care and kindest attention.

3. The policy of the national administration upon the "vexed question of slavery," is not calculated to increase the enthusiasm of a free people, but on the contrary, rather to diminish it.

According to the present indications, slavery is to be preserved in the rebellious states. And, inasmuch that every true supporter of the government feels and believes the present conflict to be the legitimate fruit of that monster, consequently so long as our government refuses to strike a deadly blow at slavery, the root of the evil, just so long will the conflict continue.

Is it not evident to all candid men that the policy of the border state men and the Breckinridge democrats of the north is to preserve the Baal of the south at all hazards? And have they not succeeded beyond their expectations, in controlling the administration? Almost every act of it touching slavery proves that their policy has been adhered to thus far. When Gen. Fremont issued his humane and eminently just proclamation, declaring the slaves of rebels free—to which the great body of the American people responded "Amen!"—a fiendish howl ascended from the pit of slavery, the sound of which penetrated into the White House, and forthwith caused the president to modify said proclamation; and this vindictive howl was kept up until that noble champion of freedom was sacrificed to satisfy the champions of slavery.

Again, another champion of free institutions, Gen. Hunter, issues a proclamation declaring freedom (as a military necessity) to all the slaves within his district. But before this was officially known, the worshippers of "mother of harlots, and abominations of all the earth" sent up another and a louder howl, which compelled the president to succumb once more, by causing him to declare Gen. Hunter's proclamation "whether genuine or false, is altogether void."

Finally, the president appoints Hon. E. Stanley military governor of North Carolina, and although the infamous acts of the governor in expelling Mr. Helper from the state because he loved freedom better than slavery; also in granting license to secessionists to force into slavery those downtrodden persons who have rendered invaluable service to the Union cause; are all fresh in the mind of the reader, yet I refer to them for the purpose of showing the correctness of my assertion. But you will say: The President condemns these acts of the governor. I admit it is so stated by Washington correspondents. However, no proclamation has yet been issued (so far as the public knows) declaring the said acts "whether genuine or false, altogether void." It is also a fact not to be overlooked, that the president has not shown the boldness and alacrity in this case that he did in the cases of Gens. Fremont and Hunter. This border state policy, if adhered to much longer, will greatly discourage the friends of free institutions, because they believe the time is forever past when the slave power can be loyal to that glorious free government which its founders, in honesty of purpose, meant to establish; and while it is permitted to exist among us, it will never cease to move heaven, earth and hell for the destruction of free thought, and to plot against the freedom, peace and independence of our country. Also, this policy will naturally tend to the continuation of hostilities, and thereby impoverish the country by exhausting its resources of men and means, and ultimately result in European intervention, which is the last hope of the rebels, and which their emissaries abroad have been laboring incessantly to bring about. When this is accomplished, which is not at all improbable, the so-called Union men of the border states, (cherishing slavery as their leading interest,) with their satellites in the north, will then say to the government, "Restore to us the 'Union as it was'; enact a more stringent fugitive slave law; open the territories for our slave property, and guarantee its protection, etc., etc., and we will consent to remain in the Union. Otherwise we will unite our fortunes and destinies with the seceded states."

In view of the foregoing, is not the destruction of slavery a military necessity? It is a necessity in such a sense that no victories will ever attain the object for which we are fighting, while we still cherish this viper in the bosoms of the nation.

But it is not too late yet for the administration to change its policy, and, thereby save the country and establish the Union on principles of freedom and justice to all men. Let it aim its blows directly at slavery, the main spring and life of this rebellion, and thus disclose to the world the real (though hitherto disguised) issue of the conflict. By adopting such a policy (as a military necessity) we shall soon enlist the sympathy of the whole civilized world on our side, and no European power would dare interfere in such a conflict, except on the side of freedom, and it would not take long to convince the southern chivalry of the hopelessness of their cause, whenever they became satisfied that their pet institution is no longer to be respected, and that the three and half millions of loyalists now in bondage are to be sustained in their struggle for freedom, by all the power of the army and navy of the United States, and by the united and moral sympathy of all christendom.

In conclusion, let us hope, the President will not remain "blind to the signs of the times," that he will speedily exercise his right and moral duty as Commander-in-Chief by declaring freedom to the slaves of all rebels, and thus open a way for the final extinction of "the sum of all villainies." "So much good has not been done by one effort in all past time, as in the Providence of God it is now his high privilege to do. May the vast future not have to lament that he has neglected it."

REGNANT POPULI.

☞ The Chilton Times says that Stephen C. Bigelow, a notorious horse thief, who was sent from this county and escaped from the state prison on the 6th ult., was captured at the school house, near Mott's, in the town of Eaton, Manitowoc county, last week, by Sheriff Watrous, of Calumet county, assisted by some of the citizens of Eaton. He was securely bound and taken to Waupun, where the Sheriff received a reward of $150 for capturing him.

PARROTT GUNS.—The cost of the smallest Parrott gun (6-pounder) is $200; for 200 pounders, $2,000 each—which is said to be one-tenth the cost of the Armstrong gun. The charge of powder is one pound to every ten of the ball, and the cost of powder and shell for every discharge is nearly $10. The weight of the 200-pound Parrott is little more than one-half of the columbiad which carries the 150 pound solid shot, or the 10-inch shell. The practice with these guns is excellent. Experiments are made daily, and with an accuracy most astonishing. The shriek of the ball, as it flies through the air at a velocity of over six hundred miles per hour, is like that of a railroad train at full speed.

COULDN'T SUPPORT IT.—A chap in Virginia was taken prisoner by the rebels, who demanded that he should take the oath to support the confederate government. The fellow said he had taken a great many big oaths in his day, but he could not even support his own family, and to swear to support the confederate government was taller swearing than he dare do.

We regret to learn by a gentleman direct from Washington, that on Thursday last, Hon. Elisha Whittlesey, comptroller of the United States treasury, was struck with paralysis, causing complete blindness of one eye, and rendering his condition very precarious.—Cleveland Herald.

PACIFIC RAILROAD.—In accordance with a joint resolution of congress, the corporators of the Pacific railroad are to meet in Chicago on the first Tuesday in September.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

Last Night's Report.

WASHINGTON, July 10.

No intelligence has been received from the Army of the Potomac for several days past, further than it is improving in strength and efficiency.

NEW YORK, July 10.

A rebel dispatch says [that the British steamer Modern Greece going into Wilmington, North Carolina, on the 27th, was run aground near Fort Fisher by the blockading fleet, who hauled off on the opening of the fort on them. She has 10,000 pounds of powder on board. The fort succeeded in striking so as to wet the powder and prevent her explosion by the federal shells. It is believed that a large portion of the cargo will be saved.

A dispatch from Gen. Lee to Jeff. Davis announces a signal victory, June 28th, and grieves to state our rebel loss in officers and men is great.

A Richmond telegram of the 28th expressed the opinion that McClellan would capitulate, as his army was thoroughly discomfited. Gen. Elsyr was severely wounded, it is feared mortally. Major Wheat was killed. The British steamer Racer was in Charleston harbor on the 28th.

A Washington special to the Post says: The forthcoming address of the republican members of congress to the people will favor the most energetic action in the prosecution of the war, and the use of all the means in our power against the rebellion and foreign intervention. The policy of employing blacks in military operations is rapidly gaining favor here.

NEW YORK, July 10.

The steamer Potomac, from Port Royal, July 6th, has arrived. The health of the troops is favorable. The rebel pickets are annoying at Wilmington Island. Two of our pickets were wounded on the 5th. All quiet at Beaufort.

ST. JOHNS, July 10.

The City of New York, from Liverpool, the 2d, Queenstown the 3d, was boarded off Cape Race, Thursday morning. The City of Washington arrived out Queenstown 2d. Flour and Wheat quiet and firm, but unchanged. Political news unimportant.

QUINCY, Ill., July 10.

Special to Chicago Journal.—A band of six bushwhackers visited the residence of a Union man named Pratt, sixteen miles from Canton, in Lewis county, Missouri, on Tuesday last, but not finding him at home, plundered his house. Soon after they left the house, they met him and shot him dead. Fourteen buckshot were found in his body. Yesterday a band of about 80 robbed the store of a Mr. Thurston, Monticello, near Canton, of everything of value that it contained. The citizens of Canton are preparing to defend themselves, in anticipation of an attack from these rebel guerillas.

An order was issued yesterday by Col. McNeil, commanding that division, prohibiting the sale and circulation of the Quincy Herald in northeast Missouri. The Chicago Times will probably be attended to next.

MEMPHIS, July 8, 10 a. m., via CAIRO, July 9.

The work upon the Memphis and Ohio, and Memphis and Charleston railroads, is nearly completed on the bridge over the Big Hatchie. On the Memphis and Ohio railroad some work is yet to be done, otherwise the road could be in running order in a day or two. The running stock will be here directly.

Arkansas is in a dreadful state of ferment. Gentlemen from Napoleon who fled from conscription, says there is some Union feeling there, sufficient to induce citizens to guard its marine hospital nightly, to prevent the rebels from burning it. There is not a store open in town and not more than half the houses occupied. Six Union men have been hanged at Little Rock during the past two weeks and one put in jail at Helena for speaking to a federal officer on a transport.

A woman has been ironed and sent to Little Rock, charged with being a spy.

MEMPHIS, July 8.

There is no important news from Vicksburg. The bombardment continues, and the fleet is waiting land reinforcements.

The rebels hung an old woman near here a few days since for expressing Union sentiments and denouncing the conscription.

The town will be demolished by our mortar shells.

Gen. Van Dorn is seven or eight miles in the rear with his forces.

WASHINGTON, July 10.

Special to Chicago Tribune.—The senate spent some four or five hours in debating the bill for employing negroes in the military service. Mr. Browning opposed the feature of the bill giving freedom to slaves employed and compensating loyal owners for them, declaring it to be unconstitutional. He made a terrible long prosy speech.

No vote was taken, and the bill will come up again to-morrow.

When Chandler called up his resolution calling for all the orders the President had given McClellan about advancing, for the numbers of his army since last November, and for the numbers of successive reinforcements he has received, Mr. Wright of Indiana opposed it as a measure of hostility to Gen. McClellan, and went on to declare his confidence alike in that officer, President Lincoln and Secretary Stanton.

Mr. Chandler promptly replied that the object of his resolution had been misunderstood. For weeks there had been a violent onslaught on Secretary Stanton, on the pretext that he had prevented reinforcements from McClellan. His object was to defend Stanton, whom he proposed to show entirely innocent. His resolution was then adopted by a vote of thirty-five to six, the latter as follows: Anthony, Foster, Lane of Kansas, McDougall, Saulsbury and Wright.

In the senate debate to-day, Mr. Henderson of Missouri declared himself warmly in favor of using negroes in any military service in which they are available. He insisted on more vigor, declared we did not appreciate the desperate energy of the rebels, had underrated them every where, and were underrating their numbers and resources now.

Congress it is thought pretty certain to adjourn the first of next week, unless the present occupations of the President should prevent him from having leisure to examine and sign important bills. The tax bill is likely to be amended so that appointments for collectors will not need to be sent to the senate the present session.

The correspondence in relation to the White House imbroglio is printed. In one of his letters, General McClellan comments with considerable bitterness on the course of the simpletons who had been preferring complaints because he guarded the house and did not use it for a hospital.

Mr. Stanton's letters to McClellan are regarded as remarkably courteous and considerate.

Senator Chandler received, yesterday and to day, a perfect flood of letters from prominent persons in New York and Pennsylvania, thanking him for having had the courage to make his recent speech in defense of Mr. Stanton, and relating to the recent conduct of the war on the Peninsula.

Secessionists at Fredericksburg were remarkably jubilant, first of last week, over the news from Richmond. After the news of Monday's and Tuesday's battles began to come in, they exhibited a marked change in their demeanor. Some of them did not deny that they heard bad news, as they are known to have direct communication with rebel sources of news from Richmond, their conduct is inferred to indicate confirmation of belief entertained by our officers of terrible rebel losses in the last two days, and of the bad condition of the rebel army.

WASHINGTON, July 10.

The danger of interruptions to the free passage of our transports on the James river seems increasing. Three steamboats, the Canonicus, Achilles and Nellie Barker, were fired on by a rebel battery last Monday evening, only four or five miles below Harrison's Landing. The mail boats now go up and down under convoy of gunboats. The Canonicus and Achilles were both hit. The gunboats, it is thought, can keep navigation open by preventing the rebels from planting permanent batteries along the shore, but they cannot keep away flying batteries of long range field pieces, which have been doing all the mischief. Firing on boats so close to McClellan's position indicates that the rebels are assuming bold ground on all sides of him.

To-Day's Report.

[Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.]

MORNING DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, July 10.

The Express says that dry goods importers decline to make sales except in small lots, and credits are to end until prices of exchange will allow them to know what goods are worth. Exchange is quoted at 128½.

NEW YORK, July 11.

The Tribune says the President returned to Washington last evening. Nothing official has transpired as to his action while with General McClellan. Our letter from Fort Monroe says he went to see for himself and learn what changes, if any, were needed; that all was going on satisfactorily. The troops were well rested and ready to a man for another fight. The new position is impregnable, and the roads to Richmond, 19 miles by land, dry and favorable. The Burnside reinforcements have all gone up the river. They are in fine health and spirits, splendidly disciplined and efficient. Burnside is an intimate friend of McClellan and will be next in command.

Another correspondent learns that on the arrival of the President at Harrison's Landing, Gen. McClellan with several officers visited him on board, after which the President and the General had a private conference for about half an hour. They then proceeded in an ambulance to Gen. Sumner's headquarters, when they took horses and visited the entrenchments. The President briefly addressed the soldiers. He said he had come to see for himself and to know the situation of affairs, and that he should go back satisfied. It was said they had been whipped. It was not so, and never would be. He knew the men he saw around him would prove equal to the task before them, and never give up without going into Richmond. He had been unable to sleep for anxiety, but after what he had seen and heard, should go back to Washington, satisfied that it was all right with the army of the Potomac. He declared his confidence in the army and its commander, in all the men and all the officers, who were all alike deserving the confidence of the country.

The party continued their ride along the lines, and at 9 in the evening returned to headquarters, after having been in the saddle 7 hours. On Wednesday morning, after a conference at headquarters, the President started on his return.

WASHINGTON, July 10.

Special to Tribune.—The following are names of the committee of ten appointed by S. N. Sherman of St. Lawrence district, chairman of the republican caucus, last night, to draft an address to the country. Senators Howard, of Michigan; Wilson, of Massachusetts; Wilkinson, of Minnesota; Lane, of Kansas; Morril, of Maine; and representatives, Bingham, of Ohio; Stevens, of Pennsylvania; Sedgwich, of New York; Potter, of Wisconsin; and Sargent, of California.

World's special says: Lieut. McLane, of 32d Ohio regiment, who wears a United States uniform with the Virginia coat of arms on the buttons, was arrested to-day and sent to the Old Capitol, for entertaining a number of rebel prisoners under his charge, by taking them to private residences and escorting them around to hotels.

Special to Times.—It was rumored to-day that Gen. Halleck was with the President at Fort Monroe. It does not seem to be reliable, but the report gains belief that Halleck is to be the new secretary, for which position many regard him as the fittest man in the nation!!

The friends of Union prisoners throughout the United States will be delighted to hear that the war department has, to day, determined on a general exchange of prisoners. This movement is traceable directly to the Times' editorial of yesterday. [Is it possible!]

NEW YORK, July 11.

Advices from Hilton Head to the 6th, state that several of our gunboats had been engaged for several days in making reconnoisances of the Santee and Wachenlew rivers, and the result had proved important. Several small vessels, including a steam tug, had been captured, besides numerous flatboats laden with rice. The negroes on the appearance of the gunboats come in troops to claim protection, and they were taken off, some 600 in number.

A company of rebel guerillas, on the morning of the 4th, made a foray upon Hinckney Island and killed two of our pickets, and captured two others. The rebels had also made a demonstration at Port Royal Ferry, which did not result in any damage. They were soon driven off.

Herald's special.—The Praident is satisfied that affairs on the peninsula are in a much better condition than has been reported. He gives credit to Gen. McClellan for having in no way exaggerated facts. He has seen for himself the necessity for reinforcements, and returns with the conviction that McClellan is in his proper position; that the army is devoted to him and full of confidence in his ability, and that all he requires shall be done without delay.

Lord Palmerston, in the British parliament, reiterated his declaration against the feasibility of mediation at present.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK, July 11.

By the schooner Hazel we have New Orleans papers to June 26th. The price of flour had advanced to $24 per bbl. Gen. Sheply, in consequence, issued an order fixing the price of bread at twenty cents for twenty-four ounces, and smaller amounts in proportion.

Gen. Butler had ordered all banks in the department to make a return to headquarters of all sums due to the banks in the rebellious states; also of all sums due to the state of Louisiana or state officers; also that checks or drafts thereon shall not be paid without a permit from headquarters.

The Delta says there was quite a stir in cotton on the 25th of June, and samples which have been stored away for a year or more, sold at 25c per pound. A number of vessels which had for some time been reported below, have arrived at New Orleans. Butler has appointed Moses Bates of Massachusetts, warden of the state penitentiary at Baton Rouge.

Gen. Butler had issued orders prohibiting masters of vessels from taking away any persons of color, others than those coming to New Orleans on board their vessels, under penalty of imprisonment and liability to confiscation of their vessels.—Desperate gangs of outlaws are reported as nightly committing depredations on the Opelousas Railroad.

A large and enthusiastic Union meeting was held at New Orleans on the night of the 21st of June.

BOSTON, July 11.

The city council of Newberryport, after patriotic speeches, voted a bounty of 75 dollars to each man volunteering under the new call for soldiers in that city.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 11.

The steamer Norweigan from Liverpool 3d, via, Londonderry 4th, was boarded off Cape Race, at 11 o'clock, to-day. The shipping at Liverpool on the 4th of July was gaily decorated with flags. The Cunard and other trans-atlantic steamers had all the bunting flying. Breadstuffs downward. Wheat 3d lower. Provisions very dull.

NASHVILLE, July 10.

Special to Herald.—Four companies of the 9th Pennsylvania cavalry were surprised and cut to pieces, at daybreak this morning, at Tompkinsville, on the state line, by Stearns cavalry, 1,500 strong. Majors E. Jordans and Brown are reported killed. The wounded men were assassinated.—Stearns is reported en route for Bowling Green, with the intention of destroying the bridge. Some of the railroad track has been torn up.

NEW YORK, July 11th.

Receipts of flour 21,437 bbls market heavy unsettled and 5c lower. Sales 9,000 bbls, 4,50a4,70. Superfine Western 4,90a 5,10 common to medium extra Western.

Wheat receipts 171,877 bushels, market dull, unsettled and declining. Sales 60,000 bushels, 98a1,08 Chicago spring; 1,08 a1,12 Milwaukee club. Stocks dull and lower. American gold 11⅞.

MILWAUKEE, July 11.

Wheat lower and unsettled. No quotations.

FULLY ACCOUNTED FOR.—A few days since we noticed the fact that the Leavenworth Inquirer had re-appeared since its suppression, and accompanied the statement with the remark that its propensities for lieing did not seem to be at all changed. We have now a full explanation in the fact that A. F. Pratt was placed in charge of the paper after the discharge of the "painful duty" of suppressing it under its former editors.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, JULY 11, 1862.

The upward tendency we noted in the wheat market was checked to-day by later advices, showing a dull and declining market at the lake shore; sales were light, only about 2,000 bushels being sold, which ranged at 78@81¼c for extra milling spring and 68@76c for fair to good shipping grades. Other grains remain at previous figures.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—extra milling spring 78a81¼c; fair to good shipping grades 68a77c; rejected qualities 50@62½c.

BARLEY—wanted at 37½a42c per 50 lbs., for choice samples; common quality dull at 25a30c.

Excursion of the Baptist Sunday School.

Precisely at 8 o'clock, according to the published programme, the excursion train of fifteen passenger cars left the depot of the Galena & Chicago road for Rockford. Every car was crowded to its utmost capacity with the children, teachers, parents and citizens of the city. There was aboard, all told, not less than one thousand. The morning was pleasant, and gave tokens of a beautiful day for such a pleasure party. The train moved rapidly away through woodland and over prairie, which at this season are clothed in their livery of green, rendering it one of the most beautiful sights one could imagine.

We were soon at the junction of the M. & M. R. R., and as we gracefully wound round the curve the little town of Hanover, marsh bound as it is, looked quite tidy and agreeable. Passing along, Afton was soon reached, where the speed of the train was very materially checked for greater safety and to give us a view of the village. Here an incident occurred which ordinarily would have created some excitement. It so happened that the pay train of the road was on its way up, containing the superintendent and assistant. This, being a flying train, was slowly feeling its way, as usual, and as our rear car left the station the engineers of the two trains discovered each other, and immediately whistled down the brakes and reversed their engines, and the next moment our train came to a stand still about twenty rods from the up train. The excursion train was immediately backed to the station, where the pay train passed by, and with only a few minutes' detention we were again hurrying over the iron way, every one on board as joyous and happy as ever. Indeed, I could not perceive that the pleasures of old or young were the least marred by the occurrence.

Soon the lofty spires of the churches and the stately mansions of our neighboring city of Beloit came in view, shining like a May Queen in the bright rays of the morning sun. After a few minutes delay we were again on our way, admiring the beautiful scenery spread out in rich profusion on every hand in the land of the Sucker State. Successively passing several little villages we came to Belvidere, which seems to be at a stand still as regards present growth and prosperity, although well located upon Fox river. At half past ten o'clock we reached our destination, where a procession was formed and marched to the fair grounds, which had been selected by our friends at Rockford for our accommodation. Here we were welcomed by Mayor Williams and the Rev. Dr. Kerr, pastor of the Baptist church, which was responded to by Rev. E. J. Goodspeed, of this city. The bountiful supply of provisions was then handed about, which all seemed to relish after a hurried breakfast at home in the morning and so long a ride. Dinner over, the little folks enjoyed themselves in their various amusements amid the shady grass plots of the grounds, while many of the older ones made a visit to the shrubbery environed city. Rockford for beauty of location and scenery cannot be surpassed, and is almost the prototype of Janesville. And as Janesville has not been inappropriately styled the "Bower City" of Wisconsin, so will Rockford not be misnamed if I give it the same beautiful title of the "Bower City" of Illinois.

Wearied with our meanderings and amusements, and the time arriving for our departure, we proceeded to the cars and bidding a kind adieu to our friends of Rockford, and with their best wishes for our safe return, we were soon on our way homewards, where we arrived safely at 7 o'clock in the evening, well pleased with our visit, and with many thanks for the originators of the excursion.

We must not forget to mention in this communication, Mr. Abeel, the gentlemanly agent of the road, who carefully supervised the arrangements for the excursion, and Mr Knapp, the conductor, who has been long and favorably known by the traveling public on the main line, where he has a host of friends, for care and attention bestowed to make the excursion a pleasant and safe one for all concerned. To them would we tender our best wishes, hoping that they may be as successful on such occasions in the future as they have been in this one. M.

Governor Burton, of Delaware, has requested his name to be attached to the memorial of the Governors of loyal States to the President, tendering additional troops to aid the Government in suppressing the rebellion. Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, and Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, having previously done the same thing the record is complete.

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.—Ex-Governor Boutwell, of Massachusetts, has been determined on as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direct tax bill. His chief competitor for the place was Hon. Joseph J. Lewis, of Westchester county, Pennsylvania. The salary of the office is $4,000.

PROF. ALLEN'S MUSIC CLASS.—We are authorised to state that the first lesson to Prof. Allen's music class, will be given Monday evening, July 14th, at half past 7 o'clock, at Darling's music store, opposite the Central Bank. All persons intending to become connected with the class should report themselves at that time. jy11d2t

A Slight Cold,

Cough, Hoarseness or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF

New York.

Cash Capital and Surplus Over $1,500,000.00.

CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.

JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.

E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,

for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,641, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $128,287.21.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

For the Daily Gazette.

Excursion of the Baptist Sunday School.

Precisely at 8 o'clock, according to the published programme, the excursion train of fifteen passenger cars left the depot of the Galena & Chicago road for Rockford. Every car was crowded to its utmost capacity with the children, teachers, parents and citizens of the city. There was aboard, all told, not less than one thousand. The morning was pleasant, and gave tokens of a beautiful day for such a pleasure party. The train moved rapidly away through woodland and over prairie, which at this season are clothed in their livery of green, rendering it one of the most beautiful sights one could imagine.

We were soon at the junction of the M. & M. R. R., and as we gracefully wound round the curve the little town of Hanover, marsh bound as it is, looked quite tidy and agreeable. Passing along, Afton was soon reached, where the speed of the train was very materially checked for greater safety and to give us a view of the village. Here an incident occurred which ordinarily would have created some excitement. It so happened that the pay train of the road was on its way up, containing the superintendent and assistant. This, being a flying train, was slowly feeling its way, as usual, and as our rear car left the station the engineers of the two trains discovered each other, and immediately whistled down the brakes and reversed their engines, and the next moment our train came to a stand still about twenty rods from the up train. The excursion train was immediately backed to the station, where the pay train passed by, and with only a few minutes' detention we were again hurrying over the iron way, every one on board as joyous and happy as ever. Indeed, I could not perceive that the pleasures of old or young were the least marred by the occurrence.

Soon the lofty spires of the churches and the stately mansions of our neighboring city of Beloit came in view, shining like a May Queen in the bright rays of the morning sun. After a few minutes delay we were again on our way, admiring the beautiful scenery spread out in rich profusion on every hand in the land of the Sucker State. Successively passing several little villages we came to Belvidere, which seems to be at a stand still as regards present growth and prosperity, although well located upon Fox river. At half past ten o'clock we reached our destination, where a procession was formed and marched to the fair grounds, which had been selected by our friends at Rockford for our accommodation. Here we were welcomed by Mayor Williams and the Rev. Dr. Kerr, pastor of the Baptist church, which was responded to by Rev. E. J. Goodspeed, of this city. The bountiful supply of provisions was then handed about, which all seemed to relish after a hurried breakfast at home in the morning and so long a ride. Dinner over, the little folks enjoyed themselves in their various amusements amid the shady grass plots of the grounds, while many of the older ones made a visit to the shrubbery environed city. Rockford for beauty of location and scenery cannot be surpassed, and is almost the prototype of Janesville. And as Janesville has not been inappropriately styled the "Bower City" of Wisconsin, so will Rockford not be misnamed if I give it the same beautiful title of the "Bower City" of Illinois.

Wearied with our meanderings and amusements, and the time arriving for our departure, we proceeded to the cars and bidding a kind adieu to our friends of Rockford, and with their best wishes for our safe return, we were soon on our way homewards, where we arrived safely at 7 o'clock in the evening, well pleased with our visit, and with many thanks for the originators of the excursion.

We must not forget to mention in this communication, Mr. Abeel, the gentlemanly agent of the road, who carefully supervised the arrangements for the excursion, and Mr Knapp, the conductor, who has been long and favorably known by the traveling public on the main line, where he has a host of friends, for care and attention bestowed to make the excursion a pleasant and safe one for all concerned. To them would we tender our best wishes, hoping that they may be as successful on such occasions in the future as they have been in this one. M.

Governor Burton, of Delaware, has requested his name to be attached to the memorial of the Governors of loyal States to the President, tendering additional troops to aid the Government in suppressing the rebellion. Gov. Sprague, of Rhode Island, and Gov. Andrew, of Massachusetts, having previously done the same thing the record is complete.

COMMISSIONER OF INTERNAL REVENUE.—Ex-Governor Boutwell, of Massachusetts, has been determined on as Commissioner of Internal Revenue, under the direct tax bill. His chief competitor for the place was Hon. Joseph J. Lewis, of Westchester county, Pennsylvania. The salary of the office is $4,000.

PROF. ALLEN'S MUSIC CLASS.—We are authorised to state that the first lesson to Prof. Allen's music class, will be given Monday evening, July 14th, at half past 7 o'clock, at Darling's music store, opposite the Central Bank. All persons intending to become connected with the class should report themselves at that time. jy11d2t

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF
New York.
Cash Capital and Surplus Over $1,500,000.00.
CHAS. J. MARTIN, President. A. F. WILMARTH, Vice President.
JOHN M'GEE, Secretary.
E. L. DIMOCK, Agent,
for Janesville and vicinity.

The Wall Street Underwriter, for April, has the following:

HOME INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW YORK.—The annual statement of this our foremost local fire company, made up to the 1st of January last shows a condition of such positive strength and prosperity as to challenge unqualified admiration. In a circular accompanying the statement, subscribed by Charles J. Martin, president, A. F. Willmarth, vice-president, and John McGee, secretary, those well accredited officers very justly say: "The well-known reputation of the HOME, for fair and honorable dealing, together with its capital of ONE MILLION DOLLARS, and surplus of about half a million in addition, all well invested, commend it to the special favor of all who desire reliable protection in the way of insurance, either fire or inland."

This is not saying one word too much for their company. The HOME is the crack company of our state, in high credit all over the Union, worked upon a comprehensive plan, and managed with admirable skill and efficiency. The assets of the HOME on the 1st of January last summed up to $1,521,268.08, against an actual liability of only $55,080.43! and moreover it is worth noting that the assets are all of the very first class. The balance in bank in cash was $124,434.14, very nearly enough to set up an ordinary company, bonds and mortgages $910,219.53, secured on real estate worth $1,715,900, and then government and other stocks, equivalent to cash and convertible into cash any day, $320,636. Any one who is not satisfied with the security of the HOME as an insurance institution must be hard to please.

In 1861 the HOME wrote $106,715,148.00, taking $829,903 premium, and paid losses $535,775, including some losses for the year 1860. A dividend of 10 per cent was paid on the million capital; and after reserving an ample reinsurance fund the company shows a "net surplus" of $160,644, clear over capital and all claims, actual or possible, practical or theoretical.

The HOME is a good "testimony" in all places to the enterprise, energy and progress of the city of New York.

CONTINENTAL INS. COMPANY,
No. 102 Broadway, New York.
Cash Capital $500,000. Surplus $571,518.26
Total Assets $1,071,518.26.

TO OUR PATRONS.

We take pleasure in laying before you the Eighteenth Semi-Annual Report of the affairs of this company, with a comparative statement of its progress from year to year, together with a statement of the dividends declared to customers, the amount of Scrip Fund representing such dividends, and the net surplus accumulated, since the plan of allowing the customers of this company to participate in the profits of the business was adopted: from which it is apparent that by the system pursued the customers of the company obtain a constantly increasing SECURITY at the smallest possible expense, and that this is obtained WITHOUT ANY LIABILITY WHATEVER TO THE INSURED.

The Net Surplus of the company, January 1, 1862, over and above all liabilities, after reserving a sum sufficient to re-insure all outstanding risks, was $428,287.24.

The company having reserved the right to issue non-participating policies, is prepared to issue such policies to persons desiring them, at rates as LOW AS ANY COMPANY can insure, and at the same time offer security worthy of the name.

Something for Every Citizen, Every Fireside, Every Reader!

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.

THE SOUTHERN REBELLION

and the

WAR FOR THE UNION:

A History of the

Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,

and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES,

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of clips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

BLANKS, PER QUIRE.
Letter or cap size 1 00
Flat cap 1 50
Folio post 2 00
Medium 2 50

All blanks, as above, requiring both sides to be printed, shall be paid for by adding to the price bid by the contractor for printing on one side, 60 per cent; but this addition will not apply to blank books with ruling and printing on both pages of each leaf. In case any labor in the line of printing or binding is performed, or any materials are furnished, under provisions of law, by the public printer, the price of which is not set down in the foregoing list, the regular "trade prices" for such labor or materials are to be taken as the maximum prices therefor, subject to the same per centum of deduction therefrom, as for the maximum prices specifically enacted.

SPECIFICATIONS.

The prices per quire named in the foregoing list, for blanks and blank books, of the various sizes of paper and styles of binding, are to be taken as full compensation therefor, and to include composition, printing, binding, etc., as may be required. Twenty-four full sheets of the kind of paper ordered, will be demanded for a quire, without regard to the number of blanks to the sheet. And in this respect to all the work to be done and materials to be furnished, the specifications, rules for computation, directions and all and singular the provisions of chapter 315 of the laws of 1860, entitled as aforesaid, will be considered as entering into and controlling any contract to be made for the state printing, and all bills for work or materials must be made out, filed, audited and paid in strict conformity with the provisions of said act. Reference is, therefore, particularly made to said chapter 315 for such further information as may be desired; copies of which will be furnished on application to the Secretary of State.

The style of work and quality of materials furnished, must be equal to the specimens on file in the office of the Secretary of State; which specimens, properly labelled, are kept for the inspection of bidders, and are by law made the standard criteria "for the style in which the work shall be done, as well as for the quality of materials to be furnished by the contractor."

The term "pasteboard binding" will be construed to mean pasteboard sides covered with colored paper, with sheep back and corners, and gilt title and the year in figures, in printers' ink, on the back of the volume.

Bids must be substantially after the following

FORM OF BID.

I (or we) —— of —— in the state of —— do hereby propose to do at Madison, Wisconsin, all printing (except the advertising and publication of the laws directed by chapter 240 of the laws of 1860 to be done in the "official state paper" therein designated,) and all binding, and to furnish all materials "authorized or required by the legislature for its use, or for the use of the state in all the several departments thereof, including all blanks, blank books, circulars and every other kind of printing or binding for the use of the Executive, School Land Commissioners, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, Bank Comptroller, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Supreme Court, Military, as well as every other department of state, or in any manner pertaining to them, or any of them, and all printing of whatsoever kind or description for which the state may be liable to pay," according to the specifications, directions, rules of computation, conditions and requirements of chapter 315 of the laws of 1860, and of other existing statutes of the state of Wisconsin in respect to public printing,—the style of work and quality of materials to be equal to the specimens exhibited by the Secretary of State as standard criteria in respect to such style and quality, for —— per centum discount from the maximum prices established by chapter 315 hereinbefore cited. Such per centum discount to be uniform on every item of work or material.

Dated at —— this —— day of —— A. D. 1862.
[Seal.]
[Seal.]

Every bid must be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by two or more responsible persons, to the effect of, and substantially following this

FORM OF GUARANTY.

We, —— of —— and —— of —— in the state of Wisconsin, do hereby undertake and bind ourselves, our heirs, administrators and assigns, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, that —— bidders for doing the public printing and binding for the state of Wisconsin, and furnishing materials therefor, as set forth in the annexed bid, will, in case —— bid be accepted, enter into obligations, within ten days from the time of the acceptance of said bid, with good and sufficient sureties as required by law, to perform the service set forth in —— said bid according to the requirements of chapter 315 of the general laws of 1860.

Witness our hands and seals, affixed at —— state aforesaid, this —— day of ——, 1862.
[Seal.]
[Seal.]

Each guaranty must be accompanied by the certificate of a judge of a court of record, or clerk of such court, certifying under his oath of office, and of his own knowledge, to the ability of the guarantors:

FORM OF CERTIFICATE.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } ss.
County of ——,

I, ——, judge (or clerk, as the case may be,) of the court in and for said county, do hereby certify, under the sanction of my official oath, that I am personally acquinted with ——, and ——, who have executed the guaranty hereunto annexed, and that I know them to be men of property, and able to make good such guaranty.

In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of said [L. S.] court to be hereunto affixed, this —— day of ——, A. D. 1862.
A—— B——, Judge (or clerk,) &c.

No bid unaccompanied by the required guaranty and certificate thereto, will be considered by the commissioners of printing.

Proposals to be inclosed with guaranty and certificate, sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Printing," and delivered or mailed to the "Secretary of State, Madison, Wisconsin," in whose charge they will remain until the 16th day of August next. At 12 M. o'clock of said day the bids will be publicly opened, and the contract awarded by the Commissioners for letting contracts for public printing.

The person or persons whose bid shall be accepted, will be required within ten (10) days after the award of the contract, to make and enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), to perform the service required, as set forth in this advertisement, and according to law. The contract will require that all orders for printing, (in the English language,) binding or materials, made through the Secretary of State, be executed promptly; and all printing required by general statute, be completed and delivered within the time required by the statute directing such printing. There will be expressly reserved in the contract the right of the legislature to alter, repeal or amend any law now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted, directing any particular kind or quantity of printing; and the contract will be distinctly set forth, that it does not give to the contractor any interest in or control over, the publication of the laws in a newspaper at the capitol, or of any official notice, advertisement or communication of any kind, directed by chapter 240 of the General Laws of 1860, to be published in the "Official State Paper" therein named.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 4th day of June, A. D. 1862.

SPECIFICATIONS

For grading Main Street, in the Third Ward, south of Racine Street, and between that Street and Section Line of Section 36.

The center of the roadway shall be cut and excavated at such places as are indicated on the profile of said street and the earth removed therefrom to, and deposited in, such places as are marked "fill" on the profile of said street, so that, when completed, the roadway shall present one true surface, lengthwise, as indicated by the grade line established for said street and on file in the city clerk's office. If sufficient earth shall not be obtained by the cutting in said street to do the necessary filling, the residue of earth needed for filling shall be hauled and deposited on said street from such places as may be indicated by the aldermen of the 3d ward, not exceeding 20 rods distant from said street. The gutters of said roadway are to be excavated to the depth, on each side of the road, indicated by the profile thereof, and the earth removed to such places in the road as need filling. When completed the roadway shall present one uniform surface crowning from the gutter bottoms to the center line. The center line and the line for the grading of the gutters are represented on the plan herewith, which is made part of these specifications.—Dated June 26th, 1862.

Above mentioned plan and above specifications filed in my office, by order of council, June 26th, 1862.
ANDREW BOSS, Jr., City Clerk.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that at the regular meeting of the common council of the city of Janesville, to be held on the 17th day of July next, the said council will proceed to act in relation to the work mentioned in the foregoing specifications, and that until the day last aforesaid sealed proposals for the performance of said work will be received by the city clerk.

SINGER & CO.'S

STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the word for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, badly made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

An Ordinance

To Restrain the Running at Large of Cattle, Horses, Mules and Sheep in the city of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No horses, mules or sheep shall hereafter be allowed to run at large in any of the streets, highways, lanes, alleys or public grounds of said city.

SEC. 2. No cattle shall hereafter be allowed to run at large as aforesaid, between nine o'clock P. M. and sunrise of each day.

SEC. 3. If any of the above named animals shall hereafter be found running at large, in violation of this ordinance, the owner or person in possession thereof shall pay to the said city of Janesville, as a penalty therefor, the sum of two dollars for each and every head and for each and every violation.

SEC. 4. Any person may drive any of the aforesaid animals, so found running at large, to any of the pounds established by said city, and the pound keeper in charge thereof shall safely keep the same within said pound until released therefrom by the payment to him of the penalty incurred as aforesaid, together with all reasonable charges for subsistence and other expenses, if any there shall be.

SEC. 5. If no claimant shall appear and release said animal or animals so impounded within six days from the impounding thereof, the same shall be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder, by said pound keeper or person in charge thereof, first giving two days notice thereof by publication in at least one daily newspaper published in said city, and in case there shall be none published, then by posting up notices in at least three public places in said city, and therein shall state the time and place of sale and give a particular description of the animal or animals to be sold; and in case the owner or owners thereof be known to said pound keeper and resides in said city, it shall be the duty of such pound keeper to notify such owner or owners of the intended sale thereof, but any neglect in notifying said owners shall not effect the purchaser at such sale, or the sale thereof.

Passed this 5th day of June, 1862.

The only Correct and Complete

HISTORY OF THE WAR.
and the
WAR FOR THE UNION:
A History of the Rise and Progress of the Rebellion,
and

Consecutive Narrative of Events and Incidents, from the First Stages of the Treason Against the Republic down to the Close of the Conflict,

TOGETHER WITH IMPORTANT DOCUMENTS AND EXTRACTS FROM REMARKABLE SPEECHES,

In Weekly Parts, 32 pages, large 8vo, Price 10 Cents.

THE want of an authentic and thorough History of the Rebellion, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the history as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a mere diary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of clips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

It will be written in a style suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and social incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the records of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.

It will thus prove desirable, available and satisfactory to every citizen, every family, every office, every library: and is given to the public in the full assurance that it will command the approbation of every patriot, every Union man, every good citizen in our still Glorious Land.

Medium	2 50

All blanks, as above, requiring both sides to be printed, shall be paid for by adding to the price bid by the contractor for printing on one side, 60 per cent; but this addition will not apply to blank books with ruling and printing on both pages of each leaf. In case any labor in the line of printing or binding is performed, or any materials are furnished, under provisions of law, by the public printer, the price of which is not set down in the foregoing list, the regular "trade prices" for such labor or materials are to be taken as the maximum prices therefor, subject to the same per centum of deduction therefrom, as for the maximum prices specifically enacted.

SPECIFICATIONS.

The prices per quire named in the foregoing list, for blanks and blank books, of the various sizes of paper and styles of binding, are to be taken as full compensation therefor, and to include composition, printing, binding, etc., as may be required. Twenty-four full sheets of the kind of paper ordered, will be demanded for a quire, without regard to the number of blanks to the sheet. And in this respect to all the work to be done and materials to be furnished, the specifications, rules for computation, directions and all and singular the provisions of chapter 315 of the laws of 1860, entitled as aforesaid, will be considered as entering into and controlling any contract to be made for the state printing, and all bills for work or materials must be made out, filed, audited and paid in strict conformity with the provisions of said act. Reference is, therefore, particularly made to said chapter 315 for such further information as may be desired; copies of which will be furnished on application to the Secretary of State.

The style of work and quality of materials furnished, must be equal to the specimens on file in the office of the Secretary of State; which specimens, properly labelled, are kept for the inspection of bidders, and are by law made the standard criteria "for the style in which the work shall be done, as well as for the quality of materials to be furnished by the contractor."

The term "pasteboard binding" will be construed to mean pasteboard sides covered with colored paper, with sheep back and corners, and gilt title and the year in figures, in printers' ink, on the back of the volume.

Bids must be substantially after the following

FORM OF BID.

I (or we) —— of —— in the state of —— do hereby propose to do at Madison, Wisconsin, all printing (except the advertising and publication of the laws directed by chapter 240 of the laws of 1860 to be done in the "official state paper" therein designated,) and all binding, and to furnish all materials "authorized or required by the legislature for its use, or for the use of the state in all the several departments thereof, including all blanks, blank books, circulars and every other kind of printing or binding for the use of the Executive, School Land Commissioners, Secretary of State, Treasurer, Attorney General, Bank Comptroller, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Supreme Court, Military, as well as every other department of state, or in any manner pertaining to them, or any of them, and all printing of whatsoever kind or description for which the state may be liable to pay," according to the specifications, directions, rules of computation, conditions and requirements of chapter 315 of the laws of 1860, and of other existing statutes of the state of Wisconsin in respect to public printing,—the style of work and quality of materials to be equal to the specimens exhibited by the Secretary of State as standard criteria in respect to such style and quality, for —— per centum discount from the maximum prices established by chapter 315 hereinbefore cited. Such per centum discount to be uniform on every item of work or material.

Dated at —— this —— day of —— A. D. 1862.

—— [Seal.]
—— [Seal.]

Every bid must be accompanied by a written guaranty, signed by two or more responsible persons, to the effect of, and substantially following this

FORM OF GUARANTY.

We, —— of —— and —— of —— in the state of Wisconsin, do hereby undertake and bind ourselves, our heirs, administrators and assigns, in the penal sum of five thousand dollars, that —— bidders for doing the public printing and binding for the state of Wisconsin, and furnishing materials therefor, as set forth in the annexed bid, will, in case —— bid be accepted, enter into obligations, within ten days from the time of the acceptance of said bid, with good and sufficient sureties as required by law, to perform the service set forth in —— said bid according to the requirements of chapter 315 of the general laws of 1860.

Witness our hands and seals, affixed at —— state aforesaid, this —— day of ——, 1862.

—— [Seal.]
—— [Seal.]

Each guaranty must be accompanied by the certificate of a judge of a court of record, or clerk of such court, certifying under his oath of office, and of his own knowledge, to the ability of the guarantors:

FORM OF CERTIFICATE.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } ss.
County of ——, }

I, ——, judge (or clerk, as the case may be,) of the —— court in and for said county, do hereby certify, under the sanction of my official oath, that I am personally acquainted with ——, and ——, who have executed the guaranty hereunto annexed, and that I know them to be men of property, and able to make good such guaranty.

In testimony whereof I have caused the seal of said [L. S.] court to be hereunto affixed, this —— day of ——, A. D. 1862.

A—— B——, Judge (or clerk,) &c.

No bid unaccompanied by the required guaranty and certificate thereto, will be considered by the commissioners of printing.

Proposals to be inclosed with guaranty and certificate, sealed and indorsed "Proposals for Printing," and delivered or mailed to the "Secretary of State, Madison, Wisconsin," in whose charge they will remain until the 16th day of August next. At 12 M. o'clock of said day the bids will be publicly opened, and the contract awarded by the Commissioners for letting contracts for public printing.

The person or persons whose bid shall be accepted, will be required within ten (10) days after the award of the contract, to make and enter into an obligation, with good and sufficient sureties, in the sum of thirty thousand dollars ($30,000), to perform the service required, as set forth in this advertisement, and according to law. The contract will require that all orders for printing, (in the English language,) binding or materials, made through the Secretary of State, be executed promptly; and all printing required by general statute, be completed and delivered within the time required by the statute directing such printing. There will be expressly reserved in the contract the right of the legislature to alter, repeal or amend any law now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted, directing any particular kind or quantity of printing; and the contract will be distinctly set forth, that it does not give to the contractor any interest in or control over, the publication of the laws in a newspaper at the capitol, or of any official notice, advertisement or communication of any kind, directed by chapter 240 of the General Laws of 1860, to be published in the "Official State Paper" therein named.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, this 4th day of June, A. D. 1862.

SPECIFICATIONS

For grading Main Street, in the Third Ward, south of Racine Street, and between that Street and Section Line of Section 35.

The center of the roadway shall be cut and excavated at such places as are indicated on the profile of said street and the earth removed therefrom to, and deposited in, such places as are marked "fill" on the profile of said street, so that, when completed, the roadway shall present one true surface, lengthwise, as indicated by the grade line established for said street and on file in the city clerk's office. If sufficient earth shall not be obtained by the cutting in said street to do the necessary filling, the residue of earth needed for filling shall be hauled and deposited on said street from such places as may be indicated by the aldermen of the 3d ward, not exceeding 20 rods distant from said street. The gutters of said roadway are to be excavated to the depth, on each side of the road, indicated by the profile thereof, and the earth removed to such places in the road as need filling. When completed the roadway shall present one uniform surface crowning from the gutter bottoms to the center line. The center line and the line for the grading of the gutters are represented on the plan herewith, which is made part of these specifications.—Dated June 26th, 1862.

Above mentioned plan and above specifications filed in my office, by order of council, June 26th, 1862.

ANDREW BOSS, Jr., City Clerk.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that at the regular meeting of the common council of the city of Janesville, to be held on the 17th day of July next, the said council will proceed to act in relation to the work mentioned in the foregoing specifications, and that until the day last aforesaid sealed proposals for the performance of said work will be received by the city clerk.

GREAT REDUCTION
—IN—
The Prices
—OF—
SINGER & CO.'S
STANDARD MACHINES,

Well known to be the best for

Manufacturing Purposes:

No. 1, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $90,

Reduced to $70.

No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly sold at $100,

Reduced to $7

Singer's Letter A Machine,

IS the best Machine in the world for Family Sewing and Light Manufacturing purposes; Price, (with Hemmer,) and beautifully ornamented,

FIFTY DOLLARS.

The Nos. 1 and 2 machines are of great capacity and application for manufacturing purposes.

Our No. 3 machines are especially adapted to all kinds of light and heavy

LEATHER WORK,

In Carriage Trimming, Boot and Shoe Making, Harness Making, etc., etc. They are of extra size, with an arm long enough to take under it and stitch the largest sized dashes. There is scarcely any part of a Trimmers' stitching that cannot be better done with them than by hand; so, too, the saving of time and labor is very great. The table under these machines is 24 inches long, and the shuttle will hold six times the usual quantity of thread. The large machines work as fast as small ones.

We would ask for our Letter A machines, the special attention of Vest Makers and Dress Makers, and all those who want machines for Light Manufacturing purposes. They embody the principles of the standard machines, making like them, the interlock stitch, and are destined to be as celebrated for Family Sewing and light manufacturing purposes as our standard machines are for manufacturing purposes in general.

We have always on hand

Hemming Guages, Silk Twist, Linen and Cotton Thread on Spools, Best Machine Oil in Bottles, etc., etc.

We manufacture our own Needles, and would warn all persons using our machines not to buy any others. We know that there are needles sold of the most inferior quality, at higher prices than we charge for the best. The needles sold by us are manufactured especially for our machines. A bad needle may render the best machine almost useless.

Our customers may rest assured that all our Branch Offices are furnished with the

GENUINE ARTICLE.

In case of small purchases, the money may be sent in postage stamps or bank notes.

Correspondents will please write their names distinctly. It is all important that we should in each case know the post office, county and state.

All persons requiring information about Sewing Machines, their size, prices, working capacities, and the best methods of purchasing, can obtain it by sending to us, or any of our Branch Offices for a copy of,

I. M. SINGER & CO.'S GAZETTE,

which is a beautifully illustrated Pictorial Paper. It will be sent Gratis

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two-fold view of benefitting the public and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in imitation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smallest piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, badly made, are always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair.

The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainty of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of construction, great durability and rapidity of operation, with the least labor. Machines to combine these essential qualities, must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the above qualities not only work well at rapid as well as slow rates of speed, but last long in the finest possible working order. Our machines, as made by us, will earn more money with less labor than any others, whether in imitation of ours or not. In fact, they are cheaper than any other machine as a gift.

An Ordinance

To Restrain the Running at Large of Cattle, Horses, Mules and Sheep in the city of Janesville.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No horses, mules or sheep shall hereafter be allowed to run at large in any of the streets, highways, lanes, alleys or public grounds of said city.

SEC. 2. No cattle shall hereafter be allowed to run at large as aforesaid, between nine o'clock P. M. and sunrise of each day.

SEC. 3. If any of the above named animals shall hereafter be found running at large, in violation of this ordinance, the owner or person in possession thereof shall pay to the said city of Janesville, as a penalty therefor, the sum of two dollars for each and every head and for each and every violation.

SEC. 4. Any person may drive any of the aforesaid animals, so found running at large, to any of the pounds established by said city, and the pound keeper in charge thereof shall safely keep the same within said pound until released therefrom by the payment to him of the penalty incurred as aforesaid, together with all reasonable charges for subsistence and other expenses, if any there shall be.

SEC. 5. If no claimant shall appear and release said animal or animals so impounded within six days from the impounding thereof, the same shall be sold at public auction, to the highest bidder, by said pound keeper or person in charge thereof, first giving two days notice thereof by publication in at least one daily newspaper published in said city, and in case there shall be none published, then by posting up notices in at least three public places in said city, and therein shall state the time and place of sale and give a particular description of the animal or animals to be sold; and in case the owner or owners thereof be known to said pound keeper and resides in said city, it shall be the duty of such pound keeper to notify such owner or owners of the intended sale thereof, but any neglect in notifying said owners shall not effect the purchaser at such sale, or the sale thereof.
